As a designer at venturethree a branding and strategy agency I have worked on a range of very exciting projects including Waterstone's, Discovery Channel, The Times, MySpace, UPC and Homeserve.

During my time at O-SB, my first job I had a lot of valuable experience in print graphics for clients such as Whitechapel gallery, Handel House Museum, National Maritime Museum and South London Gallery. I designed a book for the Royal Academy of Arts landscapes exhibition that was held at Compton Verney Gallery.
